

Ve' Ahavta
Loving God and Neighbor

וְאָהַבְתָּ

He told him, "You are to love ADONAI your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength.' This is the greatest and most important mitzvah. And a second is similar to it, 'You are to love your neighbor as yourself.' All of the Torah and the Prophets are dependent on these two mitzvot." Matthew 22:37-40

Show a little love to all your neighbors who are behind you by moving them up to the space you now occupy.

Wings of Protection

כְּנָפַיִם

How precious, God, is your grace! People take refuge in the shadow of your wings...Psalm 36:7

There is no greater refuge than under the shadow of God's wings. Fly to the space with eagle wings and rejoice in God's unfathomable love to you.

Ach
My Brother's Keeper

אָח

And the LORD said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: Am I my brother's keeper? Genesis 4:9

God wants us to remember that other people are our brothers and sisters and we are to love them as ourselves. Reach out to the brother or sister who is closest to start moving them up to where you are. If no one is behind you nothing happens.

An Act of Loving Kindness

God will use acts of kindness to change not only the heart of the one receiving the kindness, but that of the giver also.

"Drink Before You're Thirsty"

A psalm of David, when he was in the desert of Y'hudah: O God, you are my God; I will seek you eagerly. My heart thirsts for you, my body longs for you in a land parched and exhausted, where no water can be found. Psalm 63:1

You've been distracted and busy and have forgotten how important it is to take time to have your cup filled daily by the Lord. You are experiencing spiritual dehydration. Go back to the well and drink deep of the Living Water.

Let Your Tassels Show
צִיִּצִית

"You are light for the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden. Likewise, when people light a lamp, they don't cover it with a bowl but put it on a lampstand, so that it shines for everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before people, so that they may see the good things you do and praise your Father in heaven.

Matthew 5:15-16

Don't hide under a bushel, in humility have a living faith that is a light to your neighbors. Move to the square with the prayer shawl and be reminded of 1 Peter 2:9.

Dayeinu
It Would Have Been Enough

This wonderful song sang at Passover recounts many of God's blessings. Following each blessing is the idea that IF God had stopped after even one of those blessings, it would have been enough and they would have been satisfied. It is a song of an attitude of gratitude.

Take a minute and honor God by sharing a blessing He has given you, then move to the space with Moses and his family and join them in the first Passover.

Empty Fruit

You are in the Judean wilderness and very thirsty! You see a green, lush, fruit laden tree and pick one of the fruits to quench your thirst. Upon breaking the fruit you find a nasty surprise. Instead of a meaty, juicy middle, you find it hollow, filled only with dry, dusty webs!

Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD. For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land and not inhabited. Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and whose hope the LORD is. Jeremiah 17:5-7 KJV

As with the bush in the desert, we too may rely on our own strength and produce empty fruit. Move to the bowl of apples and be reminded to trust in the Lord and not in your own strength!
